SECTION I. Executive Summary

In this ever-changing world of hip-hop, informality and anything goes, it is important that men of culture understand and adhere to basic rules of protocol and etiquette. Alpha Men do not simply follow the style; they establish the trend! If Alphas are to transcend all, they must be first of all. In being first, Alphas must be sure to represent basic principles of refinement and culture through understanding and implementation of basic rules of etiquette and protocol.

Merriam-Webster’s Online Dictionary defines protocol as a code prescribing strict adherence to correct etiquette and precedence. This protocol manual is developed in an effort to provide a common set of procedures for Alpha Phi Alpha Men. The manual includes official policy and procedures regarding what it means to be an Alpha Man and General Alpha Protocol. This manual is not designed to provide punitive actions for non-adherence in all instances. Please see Section IV. Enforcement.

National Pan-Hellenic Council Protocol, and General Etiquette to include all aspects of business etiquette related to the general workplace, meetings, verbal communication, telephone etiquette, cell phone etiquette, writing business letters, electronic mail and Internet behavior, dress and appearance, and table manner and included in the “Addendum to the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. Protocol Manual” (under development). Other specific Alpha application is added to each business etiquette category.

On March 5, 2004, the Georgia District Director, Brother Ellis Albright, commissioned this manual. On November 15, 2005, the Southern Regional Vice-President, Brother Everett Ward, asked that the document be converted to a Southern Region Document after seeing the second draft. Bro. Willard Hall, Jr., Executive Director of Alpha Phi Alpha Alpha Fraternity, Inc. requested that the document become a National document after reviewing the fourth draft. The current National Strategic Plan calls for presenting the document to the National Board of Directors for approval. Therefore, a National Protocol and Etiquette Committee with representation from all regions was convened on September 18, 2007.

This initial document was developed by a steering committee of graduate and college Brothers. The committee was chaired by Bro. John H. Carter (Eta Lambda) and included, Charles Flack (Eta Lambda), Mario D. Hairston (Eta Lambda), Darryl Hicks (Eta Lambda), Sherman M. Lofton, Jr. (Omicron Phi Lambda), Herman A. Lum (Eta Lambda), Elliot Mizell (Gamma Sigma Lambda), Oz Roberts (Delta Iota Lambda); Gregory Reddrick, Jr. (Nu Mu) and Marques J. Wilkes (Omicron Mu Lambda). Editing and formatting was provided by Bro. Sherman Lofton, Jr. (Omicron Phi Lambda). While several chapters were provided the opportunity to provide comments, the following chapters actually responded: Nu Mu Chapter and Gamma Sigma Lambda Chapter. Our sincere thanks to Bro. Derrick Fordjour for providing permission to utilize a copy of his limited edition print, “An Experiment in Brotherhood,” on our front cover.

Each chapter should establish a protocol committee and elect a Protocol Chairman. All chapter members should be trained on this manual. A sample certificate is included in Attachment V. This manual will be updated annually by the National Protocol Committee.

SECTION II. What it Means to be a Brother of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc.

The seven men who had the foresight to initiate the African-American Greek Revolution in America were men of distinction and class. Beginning as a social and literary club, the Alpha Phi Alpha founders were desirous of founding an organization of sophisticated, cultured men.

Therefore, from its beginning, men selected to become members of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. were destined to be men of culture, higher caliber, and character. In his 1982 publication, “An Alpha Man in Action, Guidelines for Wholesome Living,” Brother Moses General Miles wrote, “Each Alpha is a Good man, an Honest man, a Worthy man, and a Knowledgeable man… Just remember when better men are made, Alpha will make them.” In order to be first of all and servants of all, Alphas must transcend all. The characteristics of an Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. Man can be summed up in sevens words: versatile, scholarly, ambitious, gentlemanly, tenacious, obedient and deferent.

VERSATILITY requires each Alpha Man to move with ease from one task to another and adopt himself quickly to any given situation. This versatility is displayed daily. Rudyard Kipling’s infamous poem, "If", assures all Alpha Men that they must “walk with kings, nor lose the common touch.”

The SCHOLASTIC performance of an Alpha Man is expected to exceed the norm. All Alpha Men are AMBITIOUS men, and the Fraternity’s past history will more than adequately attest to this statement. High ideals and lofty accomplishments have never been lacking among the Brothers in this Fraternity. The ideals of an Alpha Man should be such now as to warrant intensive study in their particular field of concentration in college or the world of work.

Alpha Phi Alpha prides itself in the selection of men of GENTLEMANLY demeanor. Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. Men must carry themselves in a gentlemanly manner at all times...their association with the opposite sex will as Lord Chesterfield says, “always be honorable.” Alpha Men are always chivalrous and are the first to open doors for females, remove their hats indoors and respect and protect women at all cost. The conversation of an Alpha Man is always polished and worthy of imitation and emulation. Likewise, their range of topics is vast, and their quotations, if any, are well documented and authenticated. An important aspect of a gentleman is his dress. This matter of dress can be adequately summed up in one sentence: “Alpha Men are impeccably dressed at all times.” Alpha Men always understand that a clean shirt, shined shoes, neat hair-trim, and clean fingernails have never proven to be offensive to anyone.

Alpha Men are also TENACIOUS. Without the will to succeed, any minor obstacle coming along one’s path could divert one from his goal. Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. Men understand that tenacity will be required at all things attempted. “Success begins with a fellow’s will—it’s all in the state of mind.”
Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. Men are also OBEDIENT. They understand that there are certain aspects of life and society that are meant to round out the complete capacities of manhood. Therefore, all Alpha Men swear to uphold the laws of those within.

Alpha Men are also DEFERENT. He subordinates his desires and wishes to those that are more seasoned members of society in order to learn from their years of skill, wisdom and knowledge. He also subordinates his will to that of the will of his God. The Lord is the “Light of his life” and he attempts to live in a manner that will reflect the true illumination of His spirit.

In describing an Alpha Man, it is safe to conclude that he is versatile, scholarly, ambitious, gentlemanly, tenacious, obedient, deferent… and more. As is stated in Ephesians 4, once a man becomes a member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc., “he no longer walks as other men walk.” He is a versatile, intelligent, true gentleman, who is the master of his fate and the captain of his soul as is stated by William Ernest Henley in the poem, Invictus.” He also understands the true meaning of “Manly Deeds,” which is defined below:

1. To stand for character, integrity, justice, righteous; well representing the principles of Alpha before an observant society who desires and cries out for such men.
2. To maintain the standard of Alpha as the originator of the fraternal ‘ideal’ for all college educated African-American men, for the benefit of all mankind.
3. To protect the rights and civil privileges of all mankind, through voting and active participation in the political process at all governmental levels.
4. To be willing to stand and fight to protect the liberties and rights of all people of society as granted by God.
5. To provide for the needs of the oppressed, unrepresented, disenfranchised, socially ostracized and economically marginalized.
6. To esteem the institution of marriage between one man and one woman as the cornerstone institution of society and an ideal basis for family, regardless if an individual person chooses not to enter into this institution or select to live a life of life-long singleness.
7. To always protect our women, mothers, daughters, young girls and babies, from hurt, harm or danger, to be chivalrous and gentlemanly in all our dealings with them, and to positively portray them and hold them high before society.
8. To guard young boys in their early years, and to develop them as young men so that they will become honorable leaders, good fathers, and productive men, and to uplift all men of society.
9. To live a principled life so that all men and women when they see an Alpha man they know that they have seen a true man.
10. To walk as a humble but strong man-servants of all submitting our abilities, gifts, talents, and resources to serve Alpha and all of mankind.

Our illustrious 30th General President, Adrian L. Wallace, sums up the essence of an Alpha Man in the following poem:

THE ESSENCE OF AN ALPHA MAN

When you can achieve and not make achievements your goal,
When you can accept praise but remain mindful of your failings too,
When you can strive to make the dream a reality by deeds and not hollow words,
When you can give of yourself freely and cheerfully and not grudgingly nor of necessity,
When servants of All is a privilege and not a task,
When “Transcending All” means “First of All”, transcending self, and realizing that I First help my Brother to transcend, if I am to transcend.
When you can do not only a good thing but also the right thing.
When you can extend a helping hand to friend or foe alike and expect nothing in return,
And never remind them of the deed.
When you can cherish and respect the past but neither live in it nor rest upon it.
When you can dare to choose the road less traveled, and lead the pack and not run with the herd.
When our courage of character will not allow us to remain silent in the face of injustice to anyone.
When the love of our mothers and the strength of our fathers holds us and guides us to our true calling.
When you can light candles rather than curse the darkness.
When you can view obstacles as challenges.
When your only weapon against lies shall be an uncompromising truth.
This is the essence of an Alpha Man.

Adrian L Wallace
Past 30th General President

7.1 General

i. Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. fully supports the following National Pan-Hellenic Council’s (NPHC) position on Substance Abuse http://www.nphchq.org/resources.htm:

   a. “The NPHC is concerned about the governing problem of substance abuse through the consumption of alcohol and the use of drugs, especially on college campuses. This is due to the alarming number of disastrous incidents in which alcohol and drugs play a part and the adverse health conditions caused by and relating to substance abuse.”

   b. “The NPHC position is that the sale or consumption of alcohol or drugs at any NPHC council sponsored event on campus or at any student’s residence or other facility is strictly prohibited.”

   c. “NPHC strongly suggests that every college council offer educational programs specifically addressing the problems of and solutions to substance abuse on or around the local campus.”

ii. Alpha Phi Alpha Men will always show respect to themselves, to others, whether wearing paraphernalia or not.

iii. Alpha Men NEVER abuse alcohol.

iv. Alpha Men NEVER use illegal drugs.

v. As per the Risk Management Handbook, “It is important, especially among College Chapters, that Brothers have a clear understanding of the Legal drinking age in the State where he lives. In addition, each chapter should become acquainted with the State “Dram Shop” laws. Under that law, fraternities and sororities may be held liable for the behavior of persons served liquor during fraternal social functions. In simple language, “Dram Shop” laws provide that if a person receives liquor from a fraternity and as a result injures someone or damages property, the Fraternity is legally liable for that person’s action. In those states which have raised the legal drinking age to 21 years, it is illegal to serve liquor or alcoholic beverages to anyone under that age whether they pay for it or not”

iii. Brothers and Chapters should obtain approval for public service announcements from the National Organization utilizing the form in Attachment U.

SECTION III.9 Greeting Protocol
9.1 General
i. Although Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Incorporated firmly believes in egalitarianism, Alpha Officers are the closest thing that we have to royalty, so a certain amount of deference is offered to them that is not offered to other Brothers who do not hold an elected or appointed position. The highest-ranking elected Alpha Officer (General President; Past-General President; Regional Vice President; Assistant Regional Vice President; elected National Officers) present at an official function should at all times be granted the respect, courtesies and amenities befitting the office. NOTE: This applies to the District Directors when functions are held in his District and the Chief Pharaoh during Intake. Brothers stand and applaud out of respect for the office when an Alpha Officer enters a room of those who have assembled to conduct the business of the Fraternity. It should also be noted that Brothers should also remain standing until the Alpha Officer is seated or until he directs them to be seated.
9.2 Official Challenge

i. In greeting a suspected member of Alpha Phi Alpha not known to another Brother, the Official Challenges as outlined in the Ritual of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. is the ONLY means of challenge.

ii. Brothers are not required to (nor should they) respond to other locally developed challenges. (#)

9.3 Official Greetings

i. In a formal setting, (e.g. a Fraternity Meeting, Convention, etc.), a Brother should always address another Brother using the title “Brother” and his last name.

ii. In an informal setting (e.g. a shopping mall or the likes), a Brother does not have to address another Brother using a formal title. It is also appropriate for a Brother to refer to another Brother as “frat”, in an informal setting.

iii. In cases where an Alpha Officer is present, the Brother acknowledging this Brother should always use the title “Brother” followed by the Alpha Officer’s title (i.e. Brother General President; Brother Vice-President; Brother District Director).

9.4 Alpha Officers Introduction

i. When introducing an Alpha Officer who is present at any function, they should be introduced using the title “Brother” followed by the Alpha Officer’s current or former (in some cases) position:

   a. Brother John Doe, the (state Region) Regional Vice-President (Assistant Vice-President).

   b. Brother John Doe, the (state District) District Director (Assistant District Director).

ii. An exception is the current or a former General President. In that case, he should be introduced using some combination of the number of his General Presidency of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Incorporated, the title “Brother” and his first (middle initial) and last name in one of the listed formats. i.e. The 32nd General President of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc., Brother Darryl R. Matthews, Sr. or Brother Darryl R. Matthews, Sr., the 32nd General President of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc.

9.5 Titles Used with Correspondence and Invitations

SECTION IV. ENFORCEMENT

Merriam-Webster’s Online Dictionary defines protocol as a code prescribing strict adherence to correct etiquette and precedence. This protocol manual is developed in an effort to provide a common set of procedures for Alpha Phi Alpha Men. The manual includes official policy and procedures regarding what it means to be an Alpha Man and General Alpha Protocol. This manual is not designed to provide punitive actions for non-adherence in all instances.

Protocol and etiquette is your actions that express your respect of another person and/or organization. Etiquette is a lofty and valued attitude and is a source of harmony and solidarity. If an organization is to preserve and protect its brand, there must be strict definition of the rules of protocol and etiquette.

According to Wikipedia on-line dictionary, the notion of etiquette is of French origin and arising from practices at the court of Louis XIV. For some etiquette and protocol is occasionally disparaged as old-fashioned or elite, a code concerned only with "which fork to use". Some people consider etiquette to be an unnecessary restriction of freedom of personal expression; others consider such free spirits to be unmanne rly and rude. For instance, wearing pajamas to a wedding in a cathedral may be an expression of the guest's freedom, but may also cause the bride and groom to suspect that the guest in pajamas is expressing amusement or disparagement towards them and their wedding.

Etiquette may be enforced in pragmatic ways: "No shoes, no shirt, no service" is a notice commonly displayed outside stores and cafés in the warmer parts of North America. Others feel that a single, basic code shared by all makes life simpler and more pleasant by removing many chances for misunderstandings. This protocol and etiquette manual is designed to provide Men of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. with the proper manner in which Men of Alpha should behave and act. In those cases, where polices in this document are not decretory, such will be noted by a (#) sign. However, enforcement of the policies and procedures in the manual will not necessarily be punitive. Enforcement may simply mean a simply phrase like, “Alphas don’t do that.” Where there are requirements to obtain approval of certain processes and procedures, the process has been outlined under that particular section of the manual, i.e., approval of certain public relations activities. The policies and procedures in this manual are also not designed to be retroactive, in most cases, i.e. it is not designed to have tattoos removed. However, it is hoped that the policies and procedures will make it clear that such action is not condoned by the National Organization of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. thus absorbing the organization of any potential liability associated with such actions.

PURPOSE OMEGA SERVICE OFFICIAL PROTOCOL AND PROCEDURES
The OMEGA service of the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity is the ceremony in which all deceased Alpha brothers are transferred into Omega Chapter. Omega Chapter is the chapter reserved for deceased brothers and this is consistent with the view that “Once an Alpha always an Alpha.” The ceremony is traditionally a PUBLIC ceremony. Any member of the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity is welcome to attend, as well as the deceased brother’s family, friends and members of the general public. The ceremony may be made “Private” based on the wishes of the family of the deceased brother. The decision of the deceased brother’s family MUST be honored by the brothers of Alpha Phi Alpha.

Since this ceremony is open to the public and it is held in honor of a deceased brother, all brothers MUST be clad in Alpha Attire. The ceremony must be conducted with the dignity and respect accorded to such funeral rites, whether it is “Public” or “Private.” If the deceased brother is an “active” brother, the Chaplain of his chapter, where possible, should conduct the service. In any event, an Alpha Phi Alpha brother must conduct the service. There are two forms of the ceremony, a short form and a long form and the form used will depend upon the amount of time allocated by the deceased brother’s family. The ceremony may be conducted prior to, during or after the obsequies for the deceased brother but must not at any time, be conducted without the express approval of the deceased brother’s family. On occasion, chapters receive requests from inactive deceased brothers’ families and or friends for Omega Services to be conducted. Every effort should be made to comply with such a request and the Chaplain of the chapter closest to the deceased brother’s location should be notified. All brothers in the area should make every effort to support such a request made on behalf of a deceased brother.

Finally, it must be noted that an Omega Service is an official Fraternity function and as such, must be conducted in a manner appropriate to such. The General Office must be notified of the brother’s initiation into the Omega Chapter via Attachment U.

To be an Alphaman means more than just to wear a pin,
I requires intrinsic qualities that are developed deep within,
It calls for lasting brotherhood, a word sometimes used in vain,
It means an honest devotion, not anticipation of personal gain.
Fraternity speaks of brotherly love, that's something to achieve,
It's more than just a grip of hands, it's an ideal to conceive.

You're proud to be an Alpha, and share her praises won,
Before you inflate yourself with pride, ask yourself honestly, how much have I done?
To realize the wealth of personal satisfaction from knowing you've given your all,
To have helped her cause unflatteringly, when rally to her call.
To combine all these qualities, and root them deep within,
The product would be an Alpha man, deserving of his pin.

So take an honest inventory of your character within,
And for every virtue you find missing, try and weave it in.
For a man without these virtues isn't worth a grain of sand.
It plain to see, it's more than just a pin that makes an Alpha man.
