Greetings to all on behalf of the Santa Fe Rugby Football Club, representing the great American state of New Mexico. Although many folks have mistaken our state for a country beneath our southern border, take our word for it, New Mexico's for real. Or rather, I should say, don't take our word for it; come visit our marvelous state and find why we all love her so.

The England Tour of '86 is our first overseas tour, and we're all very excited about realizing a rugger's dream: we know we'll have a chance to play some great opposition and meet some fine people. Indeed, we already have friends in the Lensbury and Cheshunt Clubs, who have both visited Santa Fe as a part of tours in 1982 and 1985, respectively.

The Santa Fe Rugby Club was founded in 1972 by a small band of maverick players from the University of New Mexico team in Albuquerque. He may not forgive me for "dating" him here, but it should be pointed out that Ray Marrone, of "Tour 86, was one of those founding fathers.

Our tour schedule calls for an opening match with our old friends, the Lensbury RFC (rugby football club). Lensbury holds a special niche in our collective rugby heart, for they were the first foreign team we had the pleasure to host. They proved to be a most congenial group, and we look forward to having the chance to do to their homes what they did to ours.

From Middlesex County it's off to the "west country" of Cornwall, land of fog-shrouded moors, ghosts, and scrumpy, the native form of hard cider. If this all sounds a bit mysterious, it should, for Cornwall is certainly a special kind of place. Here we'll find the Launceston RFC and Martyn Sandercock, who served as the only Cornish member of the Santa Fe RFC in 1984. We'll be playing under the lights against Launceston, a first for our lads.

A little sight-seeing will be in order on our way back towards the London area, where we'll be hosted by the Warlingham RFC of Surrey County. Both our overseas tour manager, Herb Howell, and I have had the pleasure of associating with the Warlingham Club on previous trips abroad. Herb even had occasion to revolutionize the game of cricket while playing for the Blue and White, as only an American can. While at Warlingham we'll have the opportunity to find out why our Most Valuable Teammate of 1984. David Kipnis, never returned from a short vacation to the UK two years ago. It seems he "got stuck" at Warlingham, where he's better not take the field against us!

Our final fling in England this spring will come through the good auspices of our mates at the Cheshunt RFC. Hertfordshire County champions last year, their USA tour plans were hard-hit last year by the sad state of the British pound, and the side which appeared at Santa Fe Rugby's Springfest in April was not really representative of the kind of rugby power the club represents. We do note, however, that the pound has now stabilized considerably, a fact which I trust will not escape Club bigwig Neil Summerbell when it comes time to toast our marvelous performances on the pitch.

To our British hosts, we say "cheers!" and gracias. We sincerely hope our visit will serve as a catalyst to promote future exchanges between our countries. An open invitation is hereby extended to any and all of you who may wish to visit our wonderful city. Just drop us a line and we'll do all we can to make your stay (however long) as comfortable as possible.

As for our innumerable supporters and patrons in New Mexico, we wish to emphasize our deep appreciation of your generosities. We go to England to represent you all, with the knowledge that it could not have taken place without your help. We intend to live up to your high expectations for us. It certainly is an easy thing to recommend your various products and services to others. Thank you.

For our club-mates, male and female, who worked like dogs to get this tour off the ground. I'm confident that you will feel a deep sense of satisfaction at each and every turn of our Adventure.

And now, ON WITH THE TOUR!

Yours in Rugby Fellowship.

GREETINGS FROM THE CITY OF SANTA FE, THE OLDEST CAPITAL CITY IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA!

As the Santa Fe Rugby Football Club, founded in 1972, embark on their historic tour of England, we wish them the best of fortune in their endeavors. We would like to thank you for the hospitality that you will be extending to our team members while they are in your city, and hope that we can reciprocate in the future. The City of Santa Fe, this year is celebrating its 375th anniversary, we also are the home of the oldest celebration, the Santa Fe Fiestas, celebrated in September of each year. Our climate is that of Indian Summers, clear blue skies, and moments away from our plaza, we enjoy downhill skiing in the winter.

This is the first in history, as no team has ever toured overseas. I am sure that they will demonstrate the highest of skills and their spirit the highest from the United States. We are very proud of the Santa Fe Rugby Football Club.

Sincerely

Santa Fe RFC

Santa Fe, New Mexico

Charlie began his athletic career as a big time little leaguer. He participated in the Little League World Series, representing Germany and Europe. Chaz then became a rugby fanatic while living in Washington State. He played in the Collegiate and 1st Division British Columbia, Canada RFU in college and was a Pacific Northwest Rep in '73. He then moved to California where he played for the B.A.T.S. and became Captain and coach of the Palo Alto RFC. In '74 he was a Northern California Poppy Select. Chaz then sought some real adventure and moved to Santa Fe. Charlie has been a Rio Grande select player and captain as well as being Santa Fe's club secretary and assistant coach. Charlie was invaluable, and at times amazing as he put this program together. As he says "when the world wearies and ceases to satisfy, there is always the garden."

The Doc. who is professionally single and has a part-time job as a dentist, has been the Santa Fe RFC President for 5 years running. He has been a member of the Santos since 1980. Mark has represented the Rio Grande Select XV from 1980-84. His other representative play came while he was playing for the powerful Chicago Lions (75-80). He was a Chicago Area Select player as well as a Midwest under 23. He says his best rugby experience came while playing against J.P.R. Williams during the 76 London Welsh Tour. Doc DeLeon has also been pursuing wind-surfing as a team member of Windsurfing Int. Mark's philosophy in life mirrors a John Barrymore quote, "It's a slander to say my problems come from chasing women, my problems begin when I catch them." Mark's life is dominated by pursuing as much as possible within a given time sequence. He is often seen to be leaving some important event saying "Gotta go, gotta date." Santa Fe, New Mexico

Dave has been a focal point and leader of the Santa Fe RFC for years. His dynamic style of play on the field keeps the ooohs and aaahs coming, while his fishing stories will keep you mesmerized throughout an entire evening at the pub. After making All Conference, in American football during High School he went to the University of New Mexico where his infamous rugby career began. He later played with the Albuquerque Aardvarks and has been with the Santos since 1976. In the spring of '85 Dave found himself co-conspiring with David Kipnis to infiltrate the ranks of Warlingham RFC, Surrey, My, oh my, but the lies he brought back! A member of the Santos coaching staff since 1978, Dave has played for the Rio Grande RFU Selects ('74-'84), captained the side in '81, '82 and '84, and coached these Coyote selectes in '82 and '84. Not only is "Reload" well respected in the rugby world, but he has a real bitchen' photo, what else can be said about a man of such prowess but that his life's ambition is to be a ladies golf instructor; "you start them out on the irons and work them into the woods."

Lee has vowed he won't give up rugby football until he gets it right. He played with the original New Mexico rugby club in 1972, taking up the game at the tender age of 51. Lee has been a kind inspiration for many of us since those times. A track and field champion in college. Lee still can leg it out, especially if his dear wife Marie is watching. The Hirsts promise to lend a touch of class to the Santa Fe tour and we are all tickled to have them along.

Director, High Desert Classic Rugby Tournament; dispenses tiny trophies to champions thereof. Claims to be in the best shape of his life. Carl is a super-aggressive tackler, but he sometimes drops the ball when displaying this talent. Many say he possesses a cryptic wit; others claim this is only half-true. Wears pants with many pockets. Played for Santa Fe in the 1983 Cowpie Classic, where he proved very able. Everyone is invited to his ranch in Barcelona at the Tour's conclusion.

While quite a charmer, his ability to put life as he sees it into pearls of wisdom speaks for itself. "South African School Boy Years 63-68. (Polished Boots, Starched Laces, and Togs), moved back to New Mexico. USA. Played-but not rugby until I was informed that there was rugby in the Duke City, in 72. What a change! Have been playing and aging since then." Hans, always searching for opportunity, organized and coached the 1st womens rugby team in New Mexico, the Albuquerque Sweat Hogs.

For added weight and recognition he also holds the positions of Coaching Coordinator Western Territorial RFU and Coach Rio Grande RFU. He is a graduate of the Welsh National Coaches Course in 1976, and has had plenty of opportunities to inflict his knowledge upon us. Herb will make his return debut versus Warlingham after a 7 year abstention; the club has taken out a Lloyds' of London $13.50 (U.S.) insurance policy on his knees. Herb has toured France, New Zealand, England, and Wales, so if you chance to run into him in the pub, better talk about art. Mr. Howell has been a confirmed nurdler for years. Also known as "Shamu". Graduate of University of New Mexico Medical School, Larry plays for the Aardvarks when not dissecting small critters. Rio Grande RFU selects, 1983-84. Larry plays an aggressive 2nd row, especially in the lineout, where he prefers to be thrown the ball. Once performed extemporaneous stitch-job on Richard Morris poolside. Never loses his head on the pitch, but has been known to lose quite a lot of tail afterwards.

Alan's presence on the Tour comes as the result of a deal struck when he was discovered in a compromising situation with Chic's daughter. Alan has been a promising young flanker for Santa Fe for some time. You should hear some of the promises he's made on road trips! Scored a key try against Church St. Barbarians in 1983 Cowpie Classic championship game. Alan's passions in life include automotibles, which he buys and sells biweekly. However, he was persuaded to take the plane just this once. "Hey, Bud!" Served as Club Vice President under Mark Lyon, whom Alan was sure would be assassinated "any time now."

Norfolk City Blues 3rd place Nat'l Club Side Championships 1982. Virginia Rugby Union Select XV 1982-84. Rio Grande Union Select XV 1984-85. Western Rugby Union Sevens Select 1985. Western Rugby Union Select Side 1986. For those off the pitch: Only man to close down every pub in town in the same evening. Stays out later than Dave Wheelock! Won't go home unless bodily carried. Can't be insulted, a true feral child. He has managed to be elected club treasurer two years running. He can be reached by sky phone as he is continually on vacation. He states he is representing SFRFC across the country but is suspected of representing himself and our money.

Never one to back down from larger players, Joel has sustained his share of hard knocks, and has missed a bit of the action in recent years. Healthy now, he figures to be a major force in Santa Fe's backline. Joel enjoys bull-riding, if that's possible, and will probably show you his cowboy boots if you ask nicely. Joel is also an accomplished basketball player, so don't be surprised when you see him dribble the ball when he breaks free.

Witness the kind of malarkey we put up with to have Jim play with us. He actually asked us to print this in his profile! Mr. Simms is the closest thing to a legend US rugby has produced so far. Chic has honored the Santa Fe RFC with his smart dress and sly ways for 10 years. He has just now come into his own having reached the age when a prop is in his glory. He is married to Mary Helen who says he has the mooost beautiful eyes. His other physical assets speak for themselves. Chic comes alive after a few brews. a proverbial hit of the party. Belly dancing is his specialty. It has been rumored that when he goes to the big scrum in the sky he will donate his house, including Mary Helen to the Santa Fe Santos. What a guy!

Mike is the kind of guy that you just wouldn't think had it in him. He is the kind of rugger who doesn't like to stay still, all over the field. It's also the way he likes to live. He's traveled all over the world, and after you get a few pints in him, the stories he can tell. He spent some time in Saudi Arabia playing for the Yenbo al Nawa Barbarians. "Playing on pitches of nothing but sand reminds me of running down the arroyos in Nambe." Mike's hobbies include driving his souped up Ford Pee-cup around the Plaza.

Albuquerque, New Mexico

Walked on for Orange Park, Florida RFC, the unheralded beginning of a beautiful love affair with the game, i.e. he is constantly %- E#!ing up. The collective consciousness (or lack thereof) can be attributed to Shannon, who periodically subjects us to "motivational workshops." The first winner of the Atrocity Belt, Shannon emerges from his Albuquerque crash pad every two years to run for New Mexico state senate. He is the major lobbier for Clean Restrooms in our otherwise fair state. When not insulting major judicial figures, Shannon enjoys golf and Schaefer beer. "If there is anything I want from this tour it's a cheap shot at Lewis Martinez." Only unanimous choice on this year's Rio Grande Cantina select side. Also the #1 proponent of Alka-Seltzer.

Seth wandered into Albuquerque after being chased out of Rosa's Cantina. He had been hiding out in El Paso from 1979-84, playing rugby for the Scorpions. He was a representative player for the Rio Grande selects (79-84). After his horse died in Albuquerque, he decided to stick around to play for the Aardvarks. Not only is he a dynamic force on the pitch, he's even a BIGGER force in a shopping mall. He says his BIGGEST claim to fame was teaching Dave Wheelock how to fly fish.

Carl was voted Most Valuable Forward of the 1982 High Desert Classic Tournament. He is without a doubt Santa Fe's sneakiest player; he has raised touch rugby to a new level, and currently heads the international movement to have it adopted as an Olympic sport. Carl's ambition on the Tour is to leer at more women than Hosie. Voted fastest slow winger in the Union, 1978

Rob has played with two clubs in Italy, Perugia and Torino; the Zurich RFC, and the University of British Columbia Old Boys. His best rugby however, has been played in New Mexico, with the Aardvarks and Santa Fe. Having shown his teammates THE MOVE, Rob is content nowadays to buy drinks for oldsters at his restaurant and tell them rugby stories. Billed by the press as "the best sevens player in New Mexico." Rob is certainly a gifted player. His congenial exterior belies his seriousness towards life, as evidenced by his impressive collection of trench coats and fashionable hats.

Albuquerque, New Mexico

All of us in Santa Fe know Peter very well. having had the opportunity to be his teammate from 1978 till last year. Having moved to Albuquerque, Peter now plays with the Brujos. His leadership abilities have helped solidify their forwards, as is evident by him being elected scrum captain by his teammates. He has been Rio Grande representative side player for years now and was just recently selected to the Western RFU select side. When asked what his most meaningful experience in life has been he replied. "I went fishing with David Wheelock once." This is, of course, a lie.

FRED HARPER FLANKER PHYSICIST 5'10"/1.77 M 185 lbs/13 st 3 lbs 33 6/12 yrs

Albuquerque Aardvarks RFC Albuquerque, New Mexico

Fred's rugby career began at Yale University, an obscure finishing school for wayward boys somewhere back East. He's also played for South Jersey, University of Virginia, and Club Sudamericano. A representative player for both the Virginia and Rio Grande Rugby Unions, Fred can be distinguished on the pitch by his numerous state-of-the-art prosthetic devices. Fred claims to have missed the bulk of his career due to something he calls the "Foggy Shroud." He edits the Aardvark newsletter, The Bark, and has been arrested for monogamy, bolemia, anorexia, and statutory flatulence.

LARRY N. SMITH LOCK LAWYER

Santa Fe. New Mexico

Most aged member of Santa Fe RFC. Played for the following foreign teams: The Entrance R.F.C. (N.S.W., Australia), Central Coast Seagulls (N.S.W., Australia), Texas XXX's RFC (Texas). Early in his career Smith's excellent play at fly-half caused his elevation to second row. As Smith was thought to be small for that position (a problem Smith has since remedied), the selection committee was heard to remark, "It's simply a question of where he can do the least damage." The Rio Grande RFU survived two years of his presidency. The Rio Grande RFU Select Side is still staggering from his game as full back eight years ago.

Santa Fe/Albuquerque

"The Baloney Pony" has more nicknames than most of us have fleas. This is because of the vast respect he has accumulated amongst his teammates over the years, and the longing he has produced in the hearts of many a rugby groupie. Ray played in the first rugby match ever played in New Mexico in 1970, and was a founder of both the Santa Fe and Aardvark clubs. Ray's career came to an abrupt end when he retired in 1980, '81, '82, '83, '84, and '85. Rio Grande RFU selects, 1976-69. Ray is one of the better-dressed members of the Tour, and you will probably encounter him wearing at least one item of your apparel during his stay. Ray says he has one move left, which he intends to use on your wife/girl/daughter.

Dan has been honorably abusing his body for just on eight years now. He is a distinguished member along with Chic Kelty. of the blue-eyed prop consortium. He is publicly working as a TV camerman filming news broadcasts, while at night he secretly plays the washtub bass for the embryonic, bumblebee, old-timey string band. His rugby career has found him playing in Dallas, for Our Gang Social Club, at New Mexico Tech, and for the El Paso Scorpions before he finally settled in with the Outlaws. His hobbies include playing ice hockey and reading foreign beer labels.

In addition to her medical background she is co-holder of the first women to be elected to the SFRFC board. She has been in charge of fund raising for two years, and along with co-hort Ava Morris, has truly brought organization and success to this elected position. Javier's ancestors were once in cahoots with Billy the Kid, and were finally apprehended hiding out in the New Mexico Badlands. They were caught snoozing after a wild night at Rosa's Cantina. Hence, the phrase, "You snooze, you lose." Javier still shows some of that same wild streak whenever he is "on the road again." When Javier is not tending the saloon he is out tracking Halley's comet using his data based functional systematic software of the D.U.M.P. sequence. Quite a mind he has. Also fleet of foot, short of breath, always on top of the situation; especially when the situation is lying underneath him.

Chuck played American Football in High School as a Linebacker and brought his aggressive, hard hitting, and high-tempered style of play to the Santos. He started playing rugby only three years ago and has proven his ability by being selected to the Rio Grande Union Select Side in '84 and '85 and the Western RFU under 23's. He has toured Southern California and played against the Saskatchewan RFC side. Chuck speaks fluent Japanese when excited. Chuck is the only member of the Club that has had a day named in his honor; every year Santa Feans celebrate Chuck Romero Day. Richard Morris states, "I have seen Chuck stumble and fall, but I have never seen him slack off."

ROADRUNNER

(Geococcyx califorianus)

The desert clown, unique to our region and like nothing you ever saw on land or sea. "The Roadrunner" is a ground dweller of the cuckoo family, two feet long, with a bill longer than his head and an appetite longer than his tail. A bedouin, a true son of the desert—but never a vagabond.

At first sight he appears tail heavy—but his best stunts depend on that tail. He is a speed demon and will race anything from a horned toad to a Cadillac; and when he is quite sure he has won, he will turn off to the side, throw his tail in the air, dig his toes in the ground, and look back in impudent astonishment. Though wild and lawless he makes an amusing pet, not at all shy, ready to eat anything he can swallow, and an inveterate show-off-quite a ventriloquist at times. Ranchers like him around the barnyard and all Mexicans love him as their loyal "Paisano".

Roadrunners are courageous and selfsupporting and do an enormous amount of good in the world. They eat incredible numbers of the very pests man wants most to be rid of—grasshoppers. crickets, caterpillars, beetles, centipedes, mice, lizards and, most important of all, snakes-lots of snakes! It is a thrilling three hour show to watch him swallow it head first. It is a desperate business and a lot of snake is visible a long time!"
