A boy and a girl in a little canoe
With the moon shining all around
And as he plied his paddle,
You couldn't even hear a sound.

Till the moon grew dim
And said you got to kiss me or Get out and swim.

So, what you gonna do in a little Canoe with the moon shinin' all around. *

*Repeat except substitute "moon shinin' alla; boats floatin' alla; girls swimming' alla round.

As the Bright Flames

As the bright flames ascend to heaven,
Oh! God of love and truth,
We would in thought with Thee commune,
In love and joy and youth.
The hills resound with our glad song
And echo back to Thee,
Our thanks received for work and health
And love a loyalty.

Children go where I send thee,
How shall I send thee?
Well, I'm gonna send thee one by one;
One for the little bitty baby
That was born, born, born in Bethlehem.

Children go where I sent thee,
How shall I send thee?
Well, I'm gonna send thee two by two;
Two for Paul and Silas, one for the little bitty baby,
That was born, born, born in Bethlehem.

Country Roads

Almost Heaven, West Virginia
Blue Ridge Mountains, Shenandoah River,
Life is old there, older than the trees,
Younger than the mountains growing like a breeze.

Chorus

Country roads, take me home to the place I belong
West Virginia, mountain mama,
Take me home, country roads.

All my memories gather 'round her
Miners lady, stranger to blue waters
Dark and dusty, painted on the sky,
Misty taste of moonshine, teardrop in my eye.

I hear her voice in the mornin' hours she calls me.
Radio reminds me of my home far away
Drivin' down the road
I get the feeling that I should have been home

Delaware Ceremonial Song

We are Indians brave and all our strength we save to keep all other tribes subdued.
None can ever daunt us, None can ever flaunt us,
We will keep our faith renewed
For we are the Delawares you see,
Delawares we always want to be
We are Indians brave and we are not afraid because we are the Delawares. Whoo!

Desperado

Chorus

He was a big, tall man, He was a desperado
From Cripple Creek, way out in Colorado
And he horsed around just like a big tornado
And everywhere he went he gave his war whoop

There was a desperado from the wild and wooly west.
He wore a big sombrero and two guns across his chest.
He went out to the east just to give the west a rest.
And everywhere he went he gave his war whoop.
(chorus)

He went to Coney Island just to see the pretty sights
He saw the hoochy-koocky and the girls all dressed in tights
He got SOOO excited that he shot out all the light
BANG!
And everywhere he went he gave his war whoop
(chorus)

There was a big policeman just a walkin' down the street
He saw the desperado just a struttin' down the street
He grabbed him by the head and he grabbed him by the seat
And Whoo he couldn't give his war whoop
(chorus)

Do Your Ears Hang Low

Do your ears hang low,
Do they wobble to and fro
Can you tie 'em in a knot,
Can you tie 'em in a bow,
Can you throw them over your shoulder
Like a continental soldier
Do your ears hang low?

Dreaming

My home must have a high tree
Above its open gate.
My home must have a garden
Where little dreamings wait.
My home must have a wide view
Of field and meadow fair,
Of distant hill, of open sky,
With sunlight everywhere.

My home must have a friendship
With every happy thing
My home must offer comfort
For any sorrowing.
And every heart that enters
Shall hear its music there
And find some simple beauty
That every life may share.

My home must have its mother,
May I grow sweet and wise
My home must have its father
With honor in his eyes
My home must have its children
God grant the parents grace
To keep our home thru all the years
A kindly, happy place

Eenie Meenie Miney Mo

I woke up in the morning and spied upon the wall
The bedbugs and the roaches were having a game of ball.

The score was 19-20, the roaches were ahead,
The bedbugs hit a homerun and knocked me out of bed.

Chorus

Eenie meenie meenie miney mo
Cattch a rebel, rebel
By the toe and if he hollers, hollers, hollers
Let him go
Singing, hey boys row them
Hey boys row them boats.

It was midnight in the alley
Not a trolley car in sight
I stepped into a drugstore, to get myself a light,
The man behind the counter was a lady old and gray
Who used to peddle shoestrings on the road of Mantilay.

I went downstairs to breakfast
The toast was hard and stale
The coffee tasted like tobacco juice
From the _____ county jail.
The eggs were cold and runny
And covered up with grease.
My weenie did a flip flop and landed in my peas.

Follow the Gleam

To the knights in the days of old,
Keeping watch on the mountain height,
Came a vision of Holy Grail
And a voice thro' the waiting night
Follow, follow, follow the gleam,
Banners unfurled o'er all the world;
Follow, follow, follow the gleam,

Of the chalice that is the grail,
And we who would serve the king
And loyally Him obey,
In the consecrate silence know
That the challenge still holds today
Follow, follow, follow the gleam,
Stands of worth o'er all the earth;
Follow, follow, follow the gleam
Of the light that shall bring the dawn.

H's Four, The

I Pledge my head to clearer thought
That in the life I face
I'll make my home, my country and
My world a better place.

I pledge my heart to loyalty
That I may surely be
A champion of justice for all humanity.

I pledge my hands to service
That I may always try
To give my courage and my strength to Those with less than I.

I pledge my health to living
A life in which I dare
To reach out for my brother's hand
To love and hope and care.

I take my stand, and I make my pledge
And each day it means more
And from now on through all my life
I'll pledge the H's four.

KISS, KISS

Let the Lower Lights Be Burning

Brightly beams

Our fathers mercy

From his light house evermore

But to us he gives the keeping

Of the lights along the shore

Chorus:

Let the lower lights be burning,

Send the gleam across the way

Some poor fainting struggling seaman

You may rescue, you may save.

Linger

Um-um, I wanna linger,

Um-um, a little longer,

Um-um, I little longer here with you.

Um-um, it's such a pretty night

Um-um, it doesn't seem quite right

Um-um, that this should be my last night with you.

Um-um, and come September

Um-um, we will remember

Um-um, those camping days of friendship true.

Um-um, and as the years go by Um-um, I'll think of you and cry (or sigh)

Um-um, this is good luck but not goodbye.

My Home Among the Hills

There's a land of rolling mountains
Where the sky is blue above,
And though I may roam, I hurry home
To the friendly hills I love
Where the moonlit meadows ring
With the call of whippoorwills,
Always you will find me
In my home among the hills
And where the sun
Draws rainbows in the mist
Of waterfalls and mountain rills,
My heart will always be
In the West Virginia hills

*There autumn hillsides are bright with scarlet trees, and in the spring the robins sing, while apple blossoms whisper in the breeze.
And there is music in the flashing streams,
And joy in field of daffodils,
Laughter through the happy valleys,
Of my home among the hills

Working on the railroad

Floatin' around on a cloud subline.

Eighteen-hundred and sixty-ten

Pass It On

It only takes a spark to get a fire going,
And soon all those around can warm up to its glowing,
That's how it is with God's love,
Once you've experienced it;
You spread His love to everyone
You want to pass it on

What a wondrous time is Spring,
When all the trees are budding
The birds begin to sing
The flowers start their blooming,
That's how it is with God's love,
Once you've experienced it,
You want to sing
It's fresh like Spring
You want to pass it on.

Plowing Song

A growing day and a waking field,
And a furrow straight and long,
A golden sun and a lifting breeze,
And we follow with a song.

Chorus
Sons of the soil are we, lads of the field and flock,
Turning our sods, asking no odds,
Where is a life so free?
Sons of the soil are we,
Men of the coming years,
Facing the dawn, brain ruling brawn,
Lords of our lands we'll be.

A guiding tho't and a skillful hand,
And a plant's young leaf unfurled,
A summer's sun and a summer's rain,
And we harvest for the world. (chorus)

Rags

I had a dog and his name was Rags

He doesn't have a pedigree, but I love him and he loves me
Flip, flop, wiggle, waggle, zip, zag

Rhododendron Song

I want to wake up in the morning
Where the rhododendron grow
Where the sun comes a-creepin'
Into where I'm a-sleepin'
I want to wander through the wildwood
Where the fragrant breezes blow,
And drift back to the mountains
Where the rhododendron grow.

I want to climb up in the mountains
Where the rhododendron grow,
Where the Lord is so near me,
When I breathe he can hear me,
And the whole world sings below,
And forget my worldly woe
And stay here in West Virginia
Where the rhododendron grow.

Riddle Song, The

I gave my love a cherry that has no stone.
I gave my love a chicken that has no bone
I told my love a story that has no end;
I gave my love a baby, there's no cryin'

How can there be a cherry that has no stone?
How can there be a chicken that has no bone?
How can there be a story that has no end?
How can there be a baby, there's no cryin'?

A cherry when it's blooming, it has no stone.
A chicken when it's piping, it has no bone;
The story of our love, it has no end;
A baby when it's sleeping, there's no cryin'.

Created you for me to love.
He picked you out from all the rest
