PINCUS THE PEDDLER

presents

Jewish-American Novelty Tunes

Mostly English with incidental Yiddish

PINCUS the PEDDLER

Born in Slabutka; raised in Brooklyn; cleaned out at Belmont, - what a guy! Be sure to listen to his tale of woe.

The SON of PINCUS

Became involved with the same Yente Kvetch who wrecked his father. Who says lightning doesn't strike twice?

IN OLD ROMANIA

A nostalgic old favorite with new lyrics in English and Yiddish; a big favorite wherever 'Kishka' is served.

Mazel Tov, IT'S A BOY!

You are cordially invited to attend the BRISS. A good time is had by all (except the baby). Don't miss it.

EL TOREADORE

The bull-fight theme from the opera Carmen with new lyrics in Yiddish and English by 'Jake the Plumber'

SAMMY from MIAMI

His wife eloped with his best friend and he is very broken-hearted because good friends are so hard to find!!

PINCUS In The MOUNTAINS

Here is that man again with a deck of cards, but he meets his Waterloo and he'll never be the same again.

LIVING and LAUGHING

This Romeo doesn't tolerate interference with his romantic overtures in movie houses or summer resorts.

PARNUSSA

This ditty elaborates on what most of us know, -- that when y'got money y'got honey. (How true, how true)

HOME AGAIN IN ISRAEL

Praising the rebirth of Israel where our persecuted brothers may now find security in their own native land.

Other Albums of the same brand by BENNY BELL

KOSHER COMEDY

Twelve fun-packed songs in typical home-spun Yiddish that will warm your heart. An ideal gift and a rare treat for parents, relatives and friends who understand the language.

ZION ALBUM No. 126

TO THE BRIDE

a gay Album (mostly in English) featuring the typical entertainment during supper-time at most Jewish Weddings, including Hava Nagila; The Ma-ch'a-tenesteh Song; Jokes; Fraylachs.

ZION ALBUM No. 252
