

The Chivalry

(We Are Called The Chivalry)

We're all men touched by royal steel We wear a white sword belt And whether on or off the field Our presence will be felt. One warning we would give to all Please listen what we say Unless you also wear the belt Best not get in our way. For we are called the Chivalry Our swords are very strong And while our steel con trols the field, Well, we can do no wrong!
