

The Gentry Are Sleeping

(Also called The Hospitaller's Song)

The musical score is written on five staves in 6/8 time. The lyrics are: 'The Gentry are sleeping One by One, O yez, O yez, The Gentry are sleeping One by One, O yez, The gentry are sleeping One by One, And no one is having very much fun, And the gentry are sleeping any where they can.' The melody is simple and repetitive, with a mix of eighth and quarter notes. The lyrics are placed below the notes, with some words like 'yez,' and 'O' appearing multiple times.
